

The Mayan calendar's "Good News"

Did you know that the American Indians had forecasted the arrival of the white man several centuries before Christopher Columbus crossed the Atlantic?

According to Okarim, Sun Brother and Inca ascended Master, the great Mayan, Inca and Aztec priests had received some very accurate visions of what would happen to their far reaching continent once the "men dressed in metal (iron armour), armed with thunder and fire sticks (guns), would invade their land".

This is why, in their great wisdom, they prepared for the unavoidable long before any foreigners ever showed up in their country.

Refusing to fight or oppose the invader, the great spiritual masters of the various South American tribes, without even consulting one another, opted to protect their most precious treasures: the teachings from their celestial and terrestrial ancestors as well as their objects of worship: spiritual assets were much more valuable to them than material ones (covetousness not being part of their culture)!

Then, those who were ready for "the long journey" gathered in meditation and took the time to raise their vibration to the maximum until they disappeared, thus becoming impossible to perceive for our 5 human senses.

Does this mean they left the Earth?

All those who communicate with the thereafter will tell you that they are still very much present in the higher celestial realms surrounding our beautiful planet.

Better even, they accompany us in the invisible and "await" us so that we can "have a party" all together... to celebrate our divine immortality!

Some alarmist medias and other prophets of misfortune are spreading the idea that the Mayans would have left us a "final warning of the crucial events to come"... by sculpting a calendar which ends precisely on the 21st of December 2012. Yet, what if it was instead a major date, a happy moment to come: the much anticipated day of our luminous "celestial reunion"?

Imagine the calendar being nothing more than an "invitation card" ... a way to count down the days until our next fraternal reunion with them?

Wouldn't that be fabulous?

Actually, wouldn't it have been "normal" that, on leaving this plane, the Mayan high priests had wished to give their lineage some indication of the precise time when they themselves would be ready to put on their light bodies and vibrate in the energy of the higher dimensions?

What if we were getting closer to this supreme illumination?

What if the opening of global consciousness had allowed us to embark together on the way to the planetary ascension?

Ever since the beginning of humanity, several exceptional beings, who managed to totally incarnate their divinity within their body of flesh, have walked the Earth. Numerous Myths, legends and tales, pagans or religious, talk about those Sages, Avatars and Spiritual Masters who did transcend their human condition: Jesus, Buddha, Kuthumi, St-Germain...

However, only few distinct collectivities have disappeared from the face of the earth suddenly without leaving a trace: the princes from Atlantis, the Avalon druids, some Egyptian pharaohs and the South American "solar" civilizations.

Ascension could therefore be experienced on an individual level as well as on a collective one.

Will 2012 be the year of the next "celestial vintage"?

Will we be the next ones to fly in the light?

What if, this time, with the rapidity that information circulates around the world, covering the 5 continents at the speed of light, we were ALL invited to cross over to the other side of the veil?

All the great Masters will tell you, there is nothing special to do, no feat to perform, no trophy to deserve, it is enough for you to remember WHO YOU REALLY ARE!

You are from the lineage of the Mayans, the Incas, the Aztecs... the Atlanteans, the Celts, the Egyptian... their divine blood flows through your veins; their legendary wisdom is inscribed in your cellular memory!

You simply have to "reactivate" all the transmutation energy available, in and around you, to access this powerful transformation which illuminates the whole being and will allow you to join at the heart of the celestial source.

You are the brothers and sisters of the living Christ, the descendants of his disciples, the new generation of conscious beings. Didn't Jesus say "You who follow me will accomplish greater things than I"? What if he was talking about the difference you make here and now, in the life of millions of people, by opening yourselves to recognize the divine light present within you?

The more you say YES to your divine essence, the more you allow those around you to, in turn, taste this extraordinary purifying energy inside themselves.

It is you the Mayans did see in their vision of a paradisiacal future, the humans of 2012 who would choose, just like them, to raise their own vibrations and help the return of peace on Earth... without struggle, without fighting any "visible" or "invisible" opponent.

They know you have everything within you to quieten your fears, those illusions your limited personality created to explain the unimaginable.

All the Ascended Masters accompany and guide you in this ultimate reconnection with the best in yourself: your divine quintessence!

Will you accept their invitation? Will you be there on the 21st of December 2012? Will you have done everything to integrate the luminous ascensional energy in every one of your cells?

It is happening here and now: have faith in yourself! Dare to reveal to the world this wonderful light that inhabits you! Chose to see only perfection in all things and to be in acceptance of "what is" at every instant!

Such is the common secret to all the Ascended Masters: the "letting go", the unconditional welcoming and the intrinsic opening to anything that presents itself, in any circumstances. Everything is a renewed opportunity to reconnect to our inner light: the forgotten or neglected parts of ourselves! Allow every tiny part of your being to be filled at every instant by the divine transmutation flame!

You are light! You are divine! You are pure acceptance and pure love!

Have faith in yourself like the Mayans trust in you to bring about the best in yourself on this earth until 2012!

Say YES!

Message from Bianca Gaia/ Diane LeBlanc, transmitted on June 2nd 2008, also available on www.biancagaia.com.

You are invited to pass along this text, on condition that its wholeness is maintained, including those few lines.